RE: CONSTITUTION (AMENDMENT) BILL TO PROVIDE FOR RESERVATION TO WOMEN IN PARLIAMENT AND STATE ASSEMBLIES

THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRI H.D. DEVE GOWDA): Sir, I used to face some embarrassment. That is why I want to bring this to your kind notice. In the Lok Sabha even the Question Hour was stalled and then subsequently it was suspended with regard to the Constitution (Amendment) Bill giving reservations to women in Parliament and in the State Assemblies. The Bill was introduced there by me with the permission of the Speaker, and the House was adjourned to enable a conscious decision to be taken by all Opposition parties. After they come to some agreement, the Bill will be taken up for discussion and it will be passed. This is the understanding in the other House.

Here also, if you permit me, I will introduce the Bill. Then you can call senior leaders of all political parties. Whatever decision is going to be taken in the meeting of all party leaders, we can implement it here itself. I Just wanted to inform this to you. (....(Interruptions)

SHRI G. SWAMINATHAN (TAMIL NADU): Sir, I have a point of order. The point is that he can introduce a Bill either in Rajya Sabha or in the Lok Sabha. He cannot introduce it in both the Houses. .....(Interruptions)

SHRI G. SWAMINATHAN: He says that he wants to do it simultaneously. It is not possible. The Rules do not allow that. He says that he will do it simultaneously. Please enquire from him.

MR. CHAIRMAN: It is not being introduced simultaneously.

SHRI G. SWAMINATHAN: The Prime minister is saying that. .....(Interruptions)
